

Stop and check before you pay.

Unexpected call, text or pop-up?
Do these 3 things.

1 Stop.

Hang up or close it. Don't click.
Never share a code texted to you.

2 Check for yourself.

Call your bank at the number on your card or statement.

3 Talk to someone you trust.

Before you pay anyone or let them
on your computer.

A real bank, government office or grandchild will never ask you to pay with gift cards, crypto or cash picked up at your door.

Already sent money?

Call your bank now. Ask them to stop or reverse the payment.

Not sure? AARP fraud helpline:

877-908-3360

Free for anyone. Mon to Fri, 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Pressure is the warning sign.

A caller or message may say:

“Your bank account is in danger.”
“Move your money to keep it safe.”
“I’m in trouble. Don’t tell Mom.”

Caller ID can be faked. So can official-looking emails and texts. Call a number you already trust, and don’t let a caller transfer you.

Screen locked by a warning?

Don’t call the number on it. Hold the power button until it turns off.
